A document presented to the Senate in 1850 showed that during the four years previous eighty-seven American built vessels sailed from Rio (Brazil) engage in the slave traffic. Vessels angage in the slave traffic. Vessels were fitted out in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston and New York, the latter being the headquarters. It has been asserted that during the year 1856 thirty-five slave trading vessels sailed from New York for the coast of Africa. These vessels were built and manned by New Englanders.

THE LOSS TO AFRICA.

During the first half of the present During the first half of the present century the annual loss to Africa was computed to be five hundred thousand. Six T. Fowell Buxton in his book on "The Slave Trade" said, "The vast amount of human suffering, and the waste of human life form but a part of the evil. The slave trade stands as a the evil. barrier, excluding everything which can soften or enlighten the people of that vast continent. It suppresses all other trade, kindles perpetual war, banishes commerce, knowledge; and above all, Christianity, from one quarter of the globe and from a kundred millions of mankind."

ELAVERY IN OUR OWN COUNTRY.

We all know too well what slavery did for our own land. It severed all the purest and holiest ties, and its par alizing effects will be felt for centuries. Hon. J. R. Giddings in a speech delivered in Congress in 1853, said con-cerning the selling of young slave girls, "Except in this city, Washing-ton, D. C., and Terra del Fuego, I do not think any government within the bounds of civilization would have permitted such an outrage upon decency. I speak of Terra del Fuego without I speak of Terra del Fuego without intending any disrespect to the people of that island by comparing their habits with ours They buy men and women for food only. The object is far more Christian like than that for which the young women in this city are advertised and sold."

From the time when the first slaves from Africa landed on our shores un-

These were representatives of only a fraction of the lustful crimes perpetrated by white men with their colored females during slavery. Many were the criminal assaults, of which the helpless victims dared not speak.
